Withdrawal/Refund Policy

If a student withdraws, he or she is responsible for the total amount charged to their account for the semester. Students who withdraw from school within first four weeks of the semester and have paid their balance in full may qualify for a prorated refund. If you would like to initiate the withdrawal process, please contact your Dean. Students who are dismissed from school do not qualify for a refund.

All fees, including extra cost electives, are non-refundable in the event of withdrawal or dismissal from CFNI. Students are required to complete all proper check-out procedures, including a final room inspection. Failure to complete this process will be deemed as an improper withdrawal and will result in applicable fees being applied to the student's account.
